IN CHATTING WITH OUR dentist recently we became a little embarrassed when our friendly tooth-man sounded off to some extent about various cliches that are used and over-used by various professional people in describing their particular activities.

He admitted that dentists are as prone as any other groups in the use of trite expressions or current popular colloquial phrases.

But he was especially irritated over one that he submitted seemed to become the special province of educators in the special "educationese" they use.

He cited an example. With his wife he had recently attended some conference where educators were presenting either a new or a retread version of some educational concept.

At one point his wife leaned over and whispered, "if they use 'whole ball-of-wax" just one more time, I'll scream!"

He didn't say whether she screamed or not.

-0-

BUT WE ALMOST GAGged at his observation, which, of course, was really not too difficult. Gagging, we mean.

At that particular moment our "chatting" was purely a one-way street.

We always find it difficult to uphold our side of a conversation with a dentist when our mouth is already wide-open and filled with drills, sponges, air hoses and whatever else those good people use in plying their trade.

You see, it had so happened that in our column that particular week we had used "the whole ball-of-wax" to describe a certain situation.

Had it not been for our friendly dentist, we wouldn't have realized how unimaginative we had been.

So we made a resolution to be a little more original in the future in that respect.

It is true that one can find a bright spot almost anywhere, if one looks for it.

Even in a dentist's chair.

Sort of sets one's teeth on edge, wouldn't you say?

MISSED BY TWO months---we suppose that would not be a bad miss, if one were discussing happenings of a hundred years ago or projecting a hundred years hence.

However, it is a considerable period of time when dealing with a current situation.

Somehow we had a lapse of some sort last week in reporting the rather involved matter of what constitutes an automatic shut-off switch in a drive-in theater as far as the city ordinance is concerned.

The Planning Commission, after holding a prolonged discussion on the subject, in which four former planning commissioners argued that the Winchester Drive-In Theater was not in compliance with the ordinance, the commissioners bucked the sticky question up to the City Council for clarification.

It will be on the agenda for the City Council meeting on Monday, August 9.

In the news story last week on the subject the date was reported as Oct. 9, which, by the way, is not even a Monday, but a Saturday.

Fortunately there are two issues of The Press in which to correct the error before the Aug. 9 meeting.

We understand some party called to criticise the city hall about our boo-boo.

But the city was in no way responsible for our lapse.

It was our own goof.

OLD CITY HALL COMES DOWN

An end of an era ----

In less than an hour on Tuesday morning of this week, a 76-year-old building in town that for 60 years (prior to 1956) served as one of the first churches in the community, became a pile of rubble.

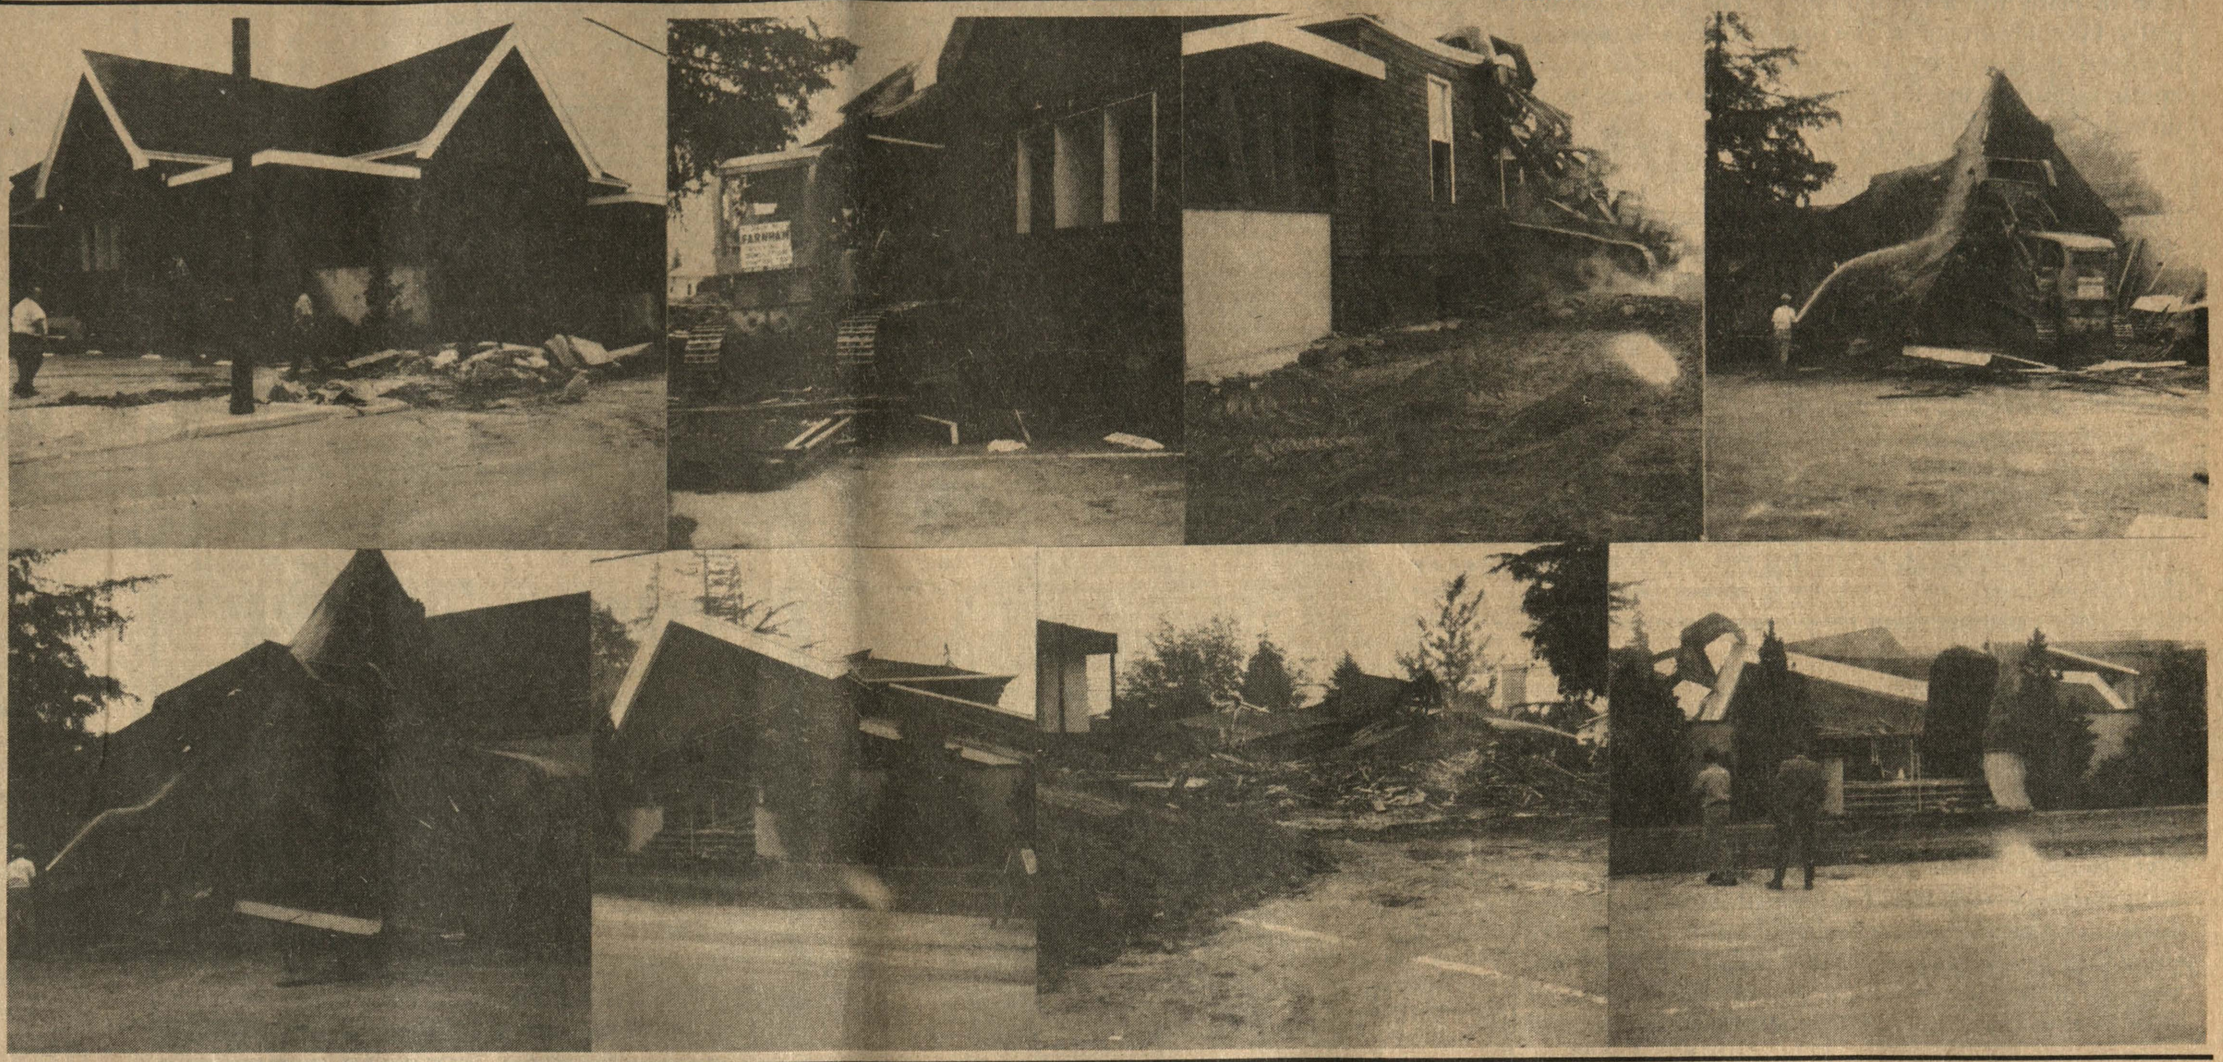
Since 1956, the converted Congregational Church building has been the city hall of Campbell.

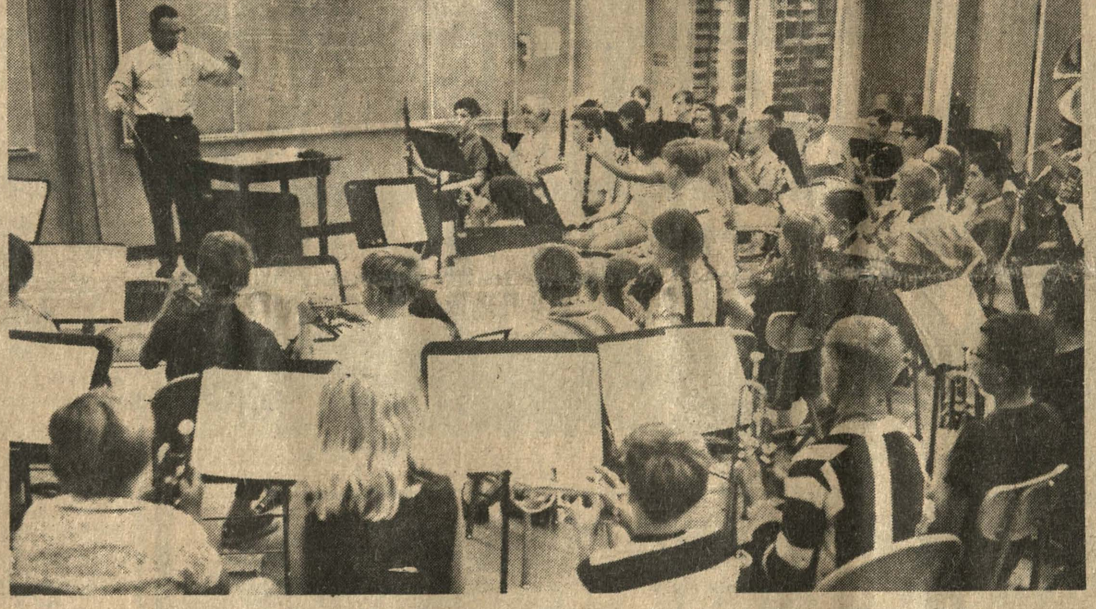
But on July 9 the city hall staff moved from the historical old building into the brand new $1 million plus city hall adjacent to it.

On Tuesday the demolition crew of Jack Farnham moved into action.

The accompanying pictures illustrate the results.....

Mixed emotions were evident on the part of the onlookers as the ancient building that served a dual purpose to the community in its 76 years was chewed and shoved ignominiously before it finally crumbled.





PLAY AT CIVIC — Elementary school students from Campbell Union School District's summer music program will give a free public concert on Thursday, July 29, at 7:30 p.m. at San Jose Civic Auditorium. The group of students shown rehearsing are directed by Ed Tonini, who is in charge of the program which will feature two orchestras, two bands, a drum corps and a choral group. The concert, entitled "Making Music Together", culminates a six week summer school program.

ONLY EIGHT FLOORS NOW

Council sends nine-story job back to Commission

By a unanimous vote on Monday, the City Council referred back to the Planning Commission the controversial plans for a proposed nine-story building at Llewellyn Ave. and W. Hamilton. The Planning Commission had previously recommended denial of the plans.

Before sending the plans back, the councilmen firmly and emphatically indicated that they had no intention of taking action on whether the basic concept of the high-rise building met with their approval, as had been requested by the applicant.

The referral followed an established Council policy which specifies that when modifications are made in any plans that had been acted on by the Planning Commission, the Commission must take another look at them before the Council acts on them.

It was explained by the applicant, Central Development, Inc., represented by G. R. Prior, president, that the plans had been modified to meet some of the Planning Commission's objections.

He pointed out that the nine-story structure would be reduced to eight stories and thus improve the parking space ratio.

Prior argued that under the city ordinance relating to P-D (planned development) zoning, the Council could grant a conditional use permit, which would be approving the project in concept, and then the problems with the plans could be worked out later.

Fred Chez, another local developer, took the microphone to urge the Council to approve the idea and submitted that there had been only few objections to the complex by residents in the immediate area.

The plans now call for an eight-story building with commercial stores on the first floor, offices on the second and apartments from three through eight.

In rejecting the plans, the Planning Commission listed four basic faults: (1) The proposed development is not compatible with the existing land use in the surrounding area; (2) That the density, intensity and appearance is not appropriate at the location; (3) That the number of parking spaces is less than should be provided; (4) That the proposed development is not compatible with future plans for the neighborhood.

Dale Scott, chairman of the Planning Commission, took the floor to add that high-rise was not the basic

Lost: Two months

It's Aug. 9 and not Oct. 9.

The writer of the news story last week reporting when the automatic shut-off switch issue of the Winchester Drive-in Theater would be before the City Council apparently suffered a mental lapse when it came to specifying the date.

The story reported that the issue would be on the Council agenda on Oct. 9. Actually the date is Monday, Aug. 9.

The reporter somehow managed to lose two months. After being properly reprimanded, he found them again.

Monday, Aug. 9 is correct.

'Plain and Fancy'

"Plain and Fancy" a delightful musical about life among the Amish, is being presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. at Campbell High School.

The cast is composed of high school and former high school students from throughout the district. Proceeds from the plays help support the summer music program at the high school.

John Hall is directing and Bill Perkins is musical director.

Planners to act on two parking space questions

Requests for modification of parking conditions in two similar warehouse/office construction jobs are on the Planning Commission agenda for next Monday, Aug. 2.

Santos Aparicio, who is building a warehouse/office at 89 Gilman, wants to use more office space than originally planned which involves the parking-space ratio.

A similar situation exists for a warehouse/office for Wilburdon Construction Co. at 645 McGlincey Lane.

On the agenda also is a zone change request by H.H. Green from R-M to P-D (planned development) for property at 2605 Winchester adjacent to the expressway, and also there is the continued hearing on the zone change request from R-2 to P-O (professional office) for Value Investors at 129 E. Hamilton near Manchester.

LITTLE LEAGUERS LOSE

Local all-stars advance

While two of the all-star youth baseball teams in the area were moving ahead in tournament play this week, the Campbell Little League all-stars, runners-up for the world championship last year, were thwarted in their try this year by Santa Clara Westside on Monday evening in Santa Clara.

Campbell-Moreland Pony League all-stars last night (after press time) played their first game in the sectional tournament in Santa Clara after winning the district championship at Rincon Park in Campbell last Saturday.

Unlike the Little League tournament play in which "there is no tomorrow", the Pony Leaguers go the double-elimination route. The sectional championship will be decided on Saturday.

West Valley Colt League all-stars winners in their first tourney held at Saratoga High last week, move into Santa Cruz this Thursday, July 29, for the next round.

Campbell Little League all-stars had little trouble disposing of Santa Clara Briarwood last Thursday 6–0 in the tournament grind, but on Monday night in Santa Clara, the Santa Clara Westside came out on top 2—0.

Campbell threatened in three different innings to break the game open but the local all-stars were unable to push any runs across. Twice during the game Campbell loaded the bases to no avail.

Even after two were out in the final inning, the Campbell team again threatened by getting two men on base.

It was a pitcher's battie most of the way with Todd Osburg on the mound for Campbell striking out 13 and allowing a couple of scattered hits.

But one of the hits was a homerun with one man on base which took care of the scoring for the entire ball game ending Campbell's bid.

The District 44 "tournament of champions" will get

Local involvement

The Press has suggested on many occasions that the citizens of this community have an outstanding opportunity to become involved in civic affairs because the city is still small enough so that "home rule" can be practiced on a sound basis.

We mean that this city still retains some of the so-called small-town atmosphere where personal contact is important, but it is large enough to attain some of the sophisticated facilities that are part of urbanized growth.

But the situation in Campbell is really no different than in many other communities. The citizens don't really take advantage of the opportunities to become involved in their city government and are basically apathetic until a matter comes up that concerns them directly.

Unfortunately a fairly basic premise has been established from which it can be concluded that the citizens of any given community are better informed about their government on a national scale than they are of the local level.

For example, although most people may have formulated a definite opinion on whether President Nixon should visit China, they will have difficulty recalling who represents them as their city councilmen, or who is on the local school board.

Yet there is no question but that the city council or the school board will have more direct bearing on their daily existence than the proposed visit of Nixon to China.

Obviously we are not arguing that we should not be interested in the national or state scene. We are merely saying that the citizens of a community such as Campbell should also be involved on the local scene where they can take an active part in their government.

By taking part in the local governmental affairs, we do not mean that the citizens should take up the cudgel on one solitary issue that affect them personally or emotionally and show no interest in others of more lasting importance to the community as a whole.

We find no fault in people being concerned about a matter that directly affects them. They should. But what we are saying is that they also should show interest in the overall community picture.

A case in point, of course, is the on and off issues concerning the Winchester Drive-In theater. At the present time, the current hassle involves the shut-off switches at the theater. It is being argued by the same people who opposed the third screen that the theater is in violation of the city ordinance that specifies that there will be automatic shut-off switches for individual cars.

But "automatic" is subject to interpretation and, as far as can be determined, there is no switch on the market that is completely automatic.

Naturally the people who reside in the mobile home park next to the theater would prefer to have the theater some place else, and they have eagerly joined in the switch fray.

Our point is, of course, that in these instances, there is the danger that a specific issue may be blown out of proportion as to its relative importance to the community as a whole.

We submit that people of the community who are removed from the actual scene of action, or who are not involved in planned harassment are not particularly concerned in this matter.

It seems to us that there are other community problems of a more vital nature which should be the concern of the citizens.

We emphasize that there is a definite need for citizenry involvement in all phases of community life. But civic action should not be limited to an isolated emotional or personal activity.

We would like this civic involvement to begin with youngsters in school in which classes would be exposed to the observance of their local government in action.

But the value of this exposure would be lost, if too much emphasis is placed on isolated incidents.

cerned over what should be in the time capsule that will be encased in the cornerstone of the clock tower.

The idea is to have material in the box that will give the people in 2071 an idea of what was happening in 1971.

The plan, we understand, is to include "tapes" of the voices of some of the local citizens. That should be interesting.

We mean trying to project 100 years hence.

We find it difficult to plan ahead even for the next day.

Seriously, however, we wonder what the people back in 1871 would have had to say if their words could have been taped.

That isn't quite fair. In 1871 there really was no town, but Ben Campbell had been around these parts for 20 years (coming here in 1851).

However, a railroad came through in 1879 and in 1885 a post office was needed and "Campbell Station" was established. That was about the time that Ben laid out the town site.

There is no "tape" available of Ben's voice, but in the first issue of "Campbell Weekly Visitor" on June 7, 1895, a speech of Ben Campbell's made on Feb. 22, 1895 was quoted in it's entirety. (The "Weekly Visitor", incidentally, was the forerunner of The Campbell Press.")

So, as we attempt to look forward to the next 100 years, we really do have something to go on as to what was happening 100 years ago.

Thanks, of course, to the files of The Campbell Press.

SIGNIFICANTLY THAT speech of Ben Campbell's on Feb. 22, 1895 was given at an Old Settlers Day celebration in Campbell Hall.

Here are a few excerpts which we think are quite apropos at this time as plans are being made for the city hall's dedication on Sept. 25, 1971, some 76 years after Old Settlers Day of 1895....

Tempus fugit.

But here are some of the things that Ben said:

"When I contrast the present with the past, I can hardly realize the change that has taken place in 50 years...."

Ben Campbell was born in Kentucky and moved with his family to Missouri and then in 1845 the family started west from Missouri. They were six months on the way....Then:

"After traveling so long through deserts and over mountains, and then coming into the beautiful valley of California, I thought it was the grandest country in the world.

"After a residence of nearly 50 years, I have had no reason to change my mind in that regard....."

Then he recalled the progress that had been made in those years.

"Since the railroads have been in operation, new life has been given to our country. When this road was put through here and a depot established, I began to think of the probability of a town. Then I thought, if we were to have a lot of saloons crowded in here, I wanted to be excused from it.

"Then I conceived the idea of making restrictions in the deeds to the town lots to be sold, so I worked on that line. The consequence is, it has attracted attention and caused a better class of people to settle here, and I am glad to see the prosperity that we have in our beautiful little town".

Those are the words of the town's founder 'way back in 1895 recalling the advancements that had been made since he had first arrived in this valley in 1851.

In 1971 the railroad that Ben spoke of no longer plays a vital role in this community's development.

And Ben's restrictions on "saloons" have gone by the boards.

So it is rather intriguing in a sort of fatalistic way to think about 2071 based on today's picture.

Or is it?

WEST VALLEY COLLEGE has lost one of its greatest assets by the untimely death of Bill Homan.

Bill, who was only 49, died of a sudden heart attack while attending a college conference back in Washington, D.C. He had served on the college board of trustees since July, 1964.

We knew Bill quite well, and we were always impressed by his complete sincerity and his dedicated efforts to make West Valley College the very best educational institution that was possible under the circumstances.

Bill was in on the ground floor in more ways than one.

He was appointed to the board to fill a vacancy just two months before the college opened for the first time in the fall of 1964. And he saw the college expand from that first stumbling effort to the institution that it has become today.

It must have been tremendously gratifying to him to have had such a major role in the development of the college over the years, despite the many problems that existed.

We admired Bill's ability to keep his feet on the ground under the most trying conditions and his capability of being able to cut through the confusing underbrush that seems so much a part of the education picture today, and come up with a clear-cut analysis of a given situation.

Bill Homan was our idea in every respect of what a school trustee should be.

His presence on the college board will be sorely missed.

We extend our deepest sympathy to his family for the loss they have suffered.

And the college, as well as the entire community, will also suffer from Bill's untimely passing.

Unfortunately, there is always a shortage of his kind of a guy.

issue considered by the commission. He submitted that the plans and elevation as submitted were considered inadequate by the commission. He also suggested that "approving in concept" as had been asked by the applicant would be unfair to the Planning Commission.

The Council in referring the matter back to the Commission, suggested that the modified plans should be on the Aug. 16 agenda for the Commission and following that body's action, they could then come to the Council by the first meeting in September.

In another matter relating to the multiple-unit construction, the Council by a 4-1 vote approved the zone change from C-2-S to P-D for property at 1805 S. Bascom (north of the present Aloha apartments).

The applicant, Hyman Weisel, represented by the engineering firm of Ruth and Going, desires to build a 155-unit apartment complex on the property which has a relatively narrow width, but with considerable depth.

Leo Ruth of the Engineering firm said that it was planned to build 133 two-bedroom apartments and 22 one-bedroom and the buildings would be two and three-story in height.

He said also that the property is now zoned commercial but it was felt that with the PruneYard and the Hamilton Center close by, it was not practical to develop it in that manner.

Councilman Bill Podgorsek cast the negative vote. He explained that he had consistently opposed changing zones to allow more apartments in face of the tremendous number of multiple-unit complexes that are either under construction or on the drawing board in town.

Letters to the Editor

MORAL BASEBALL

To the Editor:

At the close of this Little League Baseball season, may I express my feelings?

I am the mother of three sons of Little League age. My two younger boys played in the Tee Ball League and my older son, with the Minor League.

My husband and I attended every ball game; our sons participated in many practices, working a combined total of 10 hours during our teams "work" week.

We bought and sold raffle tickets; paid $16 for the dinner-dance; contributed at each game to the umpire fund; paid our share for treats, manager and coaches trophies and team mother gift.

We loved doing this.

We really enjoyed contributing and supporting this organization. I only mention these things to acknowledge we are "active" parents.

I would like at this time to thank the managers and coaches of our sons teams. We were fortunate that all of our sons were with teams that were taught not only how to play baseball, but most important, to always to be fair and a good sport.

Now for the disappointing facts:

Our older son's team won the first half in the minor division. Needless to say, the second half didn't go quite the same, but they had the security of having won the first half and participating in the play-offs.

We attended a tie-play-off game which would determine which team would play our son's team for the minor league championship.

This was an eye opening experience for us. I might add, we are not novices. This was our third year in Little League, but our first in Campbell.

Four umpires officiated at this game. The calls were unbelievable. Without going into details, let me say that as mere observers, we were very upset.

When the play-off game came two nights later, four umpires were used again. The team playing my son's won by a healthy margin. It's just that some of the calls were extra-demoralizing to an already losing team. They seemed able to shrug it off---but---hearing the voice of an umpire saying "sorry about the calls" didn't help our attitude as parents.

Apparently the carefully laid down rules that pitchers may only pitch every seven days doesn't apply to play-offs and the opposing team also won the next game with the use of the pitcher which had pitched at the tie-off game.

Some may say I am a sore loser.

I say "no", I think we had a winning team.

Sure, they didn't get the trophies, but the boys, their manager, and their coaches displayed good sportsmanship always.

Our manager did not stand outside the dugout making pyschological remarks as the other team's players came to bat.

Our sons were taught how to hit a ball and play not only LEGAL baseball, but MORAL baseball.

Each boy had a chance to play during the playoffs.

It is my dream that some day all Little League teams will have stable, emotionally mature managers and coaches that fully realize the influence they have on these young men who are just forming their moral standards and teach them only those rules which are pleasing to our Heavenly Father.

Thank you,
A concerned Mother

Ronald Clancey gets city nod for library post

Acting on a request from the Board of Supervisors that the City Council recommend a person for the Library Commission, the City Council on Monday "nominated" Ronald D. Clancey, of 649 Sobrato Way, employed by Lockheed for the position.

The supervisors will make the selection from the list of nominees submitted by various cities in the library district. The vacancy on the Library Commission exists because Vernon Owen has declined a second term.

In another action on Monday night, the City Council referred to City Attorney Bob Dempster the request of the Campbell Garden Club that the Giant Sequoia located near the northeast entrance to West Valley College be designated an official city landmark because of its historical significance.

In a letter to the Council, the Garden Club pointed out that the tree was planted 50 years ago and the donors of the tree were the then students of the Campbell Grammar School.

The Council on Monday also gave "first reading" to a new city ordinance that establishes a fee schedule for institutions within the city limits, such as day nurseries, hospitals and rest homes.

Final approval was given the city's new landscape ordinance that had been developed by a joint effort of the Planning Commission and the Chamber of Commerce.

The Council also touched on the possibility of some agency spearheading the use of school buses for transporting senior citizens and others on regular routes throughout the community.

It was reported that the school buses could be made available at a set hourly and mileage fee.

Guess they will keep it

On Monday night, the City Council by resolution "accepted" the new city hall as complete from the R. V. Frazier Construction Co. A final inspection will be made by Wally Byron, city building official, by Aug. 31 to see that all the bugs are out of it. The city will retain 10% of the construction contract (approximately $74,000) until that time.

The Council approved a change order for $3,048.96, mostly for the cost of completing the conference room.

It was also reported by Byron that the eagerly awaited "chiller unit" was shipped by truck from St. Paul last Friday and should be on hand soon.

Two counties sound sirens this Friday

Sirens in two counties, Santa Clara and San Mateo, will sound Friday, July 30, at 11 a.m. for a test exercise of outdoor warning systems. County Emergency Services Offices, formerly the Civil Defense Offices, are coordinating the test.

The sirens, or air horns in some areas, will sound for one minute as an alert signal, according to Frank Holt, Santa Clara County emergency services coordinator. This will be followed by one minute of silence, then a series of short blasts or a rising and falling siren note, which is the attack warning signal.

Holt explained that the alert signal, the one-minute steady sound may be used by city or county officials in any emergency to get the attention of the public. This would be followed by the broadcast of emergency information on radio and television stations.

Except in test exercises, the attack warning, the rising and falling siren sound or the series of short blasts, is used only when a warning is received from the National Warning System, Holt said.

MOVING AHEAD---Construction is well under way on Allstate Insurance Company's 12,000 square foot building at the corner of Salmor and E. Hamilton. The office will serve customers from Menlo Park on the north to King City and Monterey on the south. The contemporary one-story building constructed and owned by Don Koll Co., is designed to provide more than 100 Allstate sales and claims employees with facilities with which to serve their customers.

Youth recreation includes musical production and workshop

The summer recreation program at Hazelwood School, 775 Waldo Rd., has included in it's schedule a drama workshop.

The five-week session has included training in acting techniques, stage direction, stage language, scenery construction and music.

Directing the workshop for the Hazelwood School staff is Mrs. Gene L. Hofer of Campbell. The drama class started as a result of the requests of students and parents in the neighborhood of the school who wished to participate in theater work.

Approximately fifty youngsters registered for the class, which had started too late for district publicity.

Because of the enthusiastic response, rehearsals are held beyond regular hours upon request or as needed.

A culmination of the drama group, now called the Campbell Actor's Seminar Theater, is a musical production entitled "Angel's Alley", written by Mrs. Hofer.

The performance was scheduled for today, July 28 at 1:15 p.m. in the school cafetorium.

Mrs. Hofer, who has also founded and organized two San Jose youth operetta guilds, feels there is a need for this type of cultural program in Campbell for the youth and adults alike, whether it is handled through the city parks and recreation or the school district.

Active for several years working with youth drama, and as childrens' choir director, Mrs. Hofer has served for five and a half years as president of the Young Peoples Operetta Guild, Inc. Her hobby is writing plays, one of which was a sacred operetta, which she recently directed, entitled "It's a Miracle". She is now engaged in the founding and organizing the Santa Clara Valley Sacred Music and Drama Association.

"Angel's Alley" is about a child and the child's Uncle Charley who meet and join with a gang of boys and the gang's friend, Angel.

The result is an adventure of mystery in comedy and music.

Cast in the lead role is Dena Drotar with guest tenor, Tom Anderson, as Uncle Charley.

Angel is portrayed by Kay Hofer, and Jodi Tachinni is Jenny.

Rusk, the gang leader, is portrayed by John Ellison; while Mark Edwards and Doug Muzzio are cast as Dirk and Broog, respectively.

Other gang members are Matt Jacobsen, Danny Peterson, Terry Rozewicz and Mike Donaldson.

Chorus members are Babbie Bennett, Joanne Jubran, Rose Phillips, Kim Tachinni, Sharon and Joanne Peterson, Robert and Laura Verich, Terry, Bobby and Richy Angelo, Kathy and Kristy Killmeyer, Ann Hofer, Cathy and Cindy Fierro, June Noda, Laura De Lauder, Clarinda Burns, Debbie O'Briant, Randy Borja, Leslie Jacobson, Barbara Billington and Dana Clark.

Assisting Mrs. Hofer is Mrs. Jean Angelo. Accompanist is Mrs. Sylvia Rozewicz. Adults working in various capacities with the production and workshop are Mrs. Joan Tachinni and Mrs. Thelma Bennett, costumes; Pat Wilke, make-up; Dan Barry, stage manager; Mr. and Mrs. Drotar, Debbie Angelo, Vickie Angelo, and the school staff. An evening performance is pending at a later date. For more information, please call 379-8885.

Fair offers premiums for home economics exhibits

Almost $3,000 in premiums will be awarded to exhibits in the Home Economics division at the Santa Clara County Fair, said William A. Straub, Fair manager.

Entries in preserved foods, clothing and textiles, handicrafts, lapidary, rugs, stitchery and canned goods are now being accepted.

All exhibits must be in by 5 p.m. Aug. 4. Baked goods, such as candy, cookies, cakes and pies, will be brought in on specific days during the Fair, Aug. 13—22, but entry applications must be in by the Aug. 4 deadline, Straub said.

Clerks will be accepting home economics entries July 31 - Aug. 1 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. They will also accept entries weekdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Straub added that the department would extend its hours the final days before deadline, from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

All items entered in competition must be produced by residents of Santa Clara County. Entries are to be brought to the Pavilion Building, which is located in the center of the Fairgrounds on Tully Road.

Prizes vary with the some 435 different categories which can be entered. Awards are given to first, second and third places, and sometimes fifth and sixth places in certain sections, noted Straub.

Additional information is available by calling the home economics department at the Fairgrounds, 295-3050.

The Hope Diamond, which is steel blue and weighs 44½ carats, is thought to be a recut of the "Tavenier Blue" diamond that disappeared from Louis XVI's possession in the revolution of 1792.

The annual Carmelite Barbecue and Fiesta will be held at the county fairgrounds on Sunday, August 8. Mr. and Mrs. Benny Garcia, left, with Father Buenaventure and Father Gabriel (standing) and Steven, are inviting all Campbell residents to participate in the afternoon event, which will feature entertainment. booths and prizes and a chicken barbecue.

THEN---At age two, Steven Garcia of Campbell was big enough to hold a poster publicizing the annual Carmelite Barbecue which will be held August 8 at the county fairgrounds. Steven's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Benny Garcia, will have a taco booth at the event and St. Lucy's Y.L.I. will have a cake booth. A 1971 Opel and a trip to Hawaii will be awarded during the afternoon.

Bang! crash! is annual fair event

The sound of automobiles being crashed together---deliberately and for $1,000 in prize money,---will be heard at the Santa Clara County Fair for the tenth year, at 3 p.m., Sunday, August 22, before the 6,500-seat covered grandstand.

Staged by Speedway Enterprises, Inc., the annual "crunch" is for four-driver teams competing over four or more periods of action, the winning team picking up $500, a sponsor trophy, team trophies and points toward the state Destruction Derby championship.

San Jose favorite Duane Vennum, winner of one-driver derbies this season, is expected to file his entry shortly for the Fairgrounds, located on Tully Road at South Seventh Street San Jose.

Spectator prices will be youngsters under 12, to the grandstand seats.

Any interested driver may enter the competition, with a team of four or as an individual to be assigned to a team for action.

Rules and entry forms are now available. For information, write Destruction Derby, 14 Camp Evers Lane, Scotts Valley, Calif. 95060.

Last year's event drew a record 6,255 spectators and a record 103 cars, and had to be extended over six periods of action. There were 19 cars which caught fire, one overturned, but no driver injuries reported.

On July 28 the Symphony, under the direction of Cesare Claudio, will present its first concert in West Valley College's Campbell campus auditorium, corner of Winchester Blvd. and Campbell Ave.

On July 31 the orchestra will repeat its concert at the Flint Center of the Performing Arts in DeAnza College in Cupertino, under the sponsorship of the American Leisure Institute.

DARTING AROUND

with Tom Carroll

The unofficial Summer League has not been very successful. With vacations, little league and other activities, some of the pubs have been hard pressed to field teams. In spite of these handicaps, twelve doubles teams were on hand to do battle last Wednesday evening at the Gaslighter Theater.

The winning duo, Des Maples and Roy Haslam defeated Rick Miller and John Majors in the final match. Both pairs are members of the Banbury Clock I team during regular season play. Maples and Haslam were runners-up in the NCDA doubles championship and members of the NCDA All-Star team.

In winning, Des popped a perfect 180. This is only the second time a perfect shot of three triple 20's has been scored in the Gaslighter Theater. The other 180 was scored by Phil Albers during the Singles Preliminaries last February. During the course of the evening Des also popped a 140 and four tons (100's). This was probably Des' last major competition in the bay area as he returns to England next month.

Des Maples will be missed by bay area darters, many of whom he has coached and helped improve their game. In England, Des has hopes of setting-up some matches between English and American teams. Bon Voyage and good luck, Des Maples.

CLOCK TAKES COURTYARD

The NCDA Spring Season Champions, The Courtyard II Prosecutors, were challenged to a match at the Half-Way Club in San Leandro by the Banbury Clock. It proved to be a bad night for the Courtyard as they went down in defeat 7–4, the final team game was not played. It was also a bad night for former Singles Champ, Tony Chavarria as he lost two straight to Clock's Al Elder.

POTPOURI

Now is the time to start looking for a team to play on this Fall. Many players have already made their moves to other teams and new teams are being formed. Besides the teams regularly mentioned in this column, there will be a team at Cisco's in the Riverside Plaza, Hamilton and San Tomas Expressway. Other locations in the area expected to field teams are Buy-The-Bucket, Curtner and Union and the Club Gato in downtown Los Gatos.

Entry forms can be gotten in most of the pubs for the North American Open to be held Aug. 28 and 29 in Culver City. A purse of $4,000 has been posted with the winner of the Singles competition receiving $1,000. Pay-off will be made through 32 places. SCDA Prez Dick Mitruen says, "this way, if you win three games you should get your entry fee back."

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF COUNTY OF SANTA CLARA TO SELL REAL PROPERTY NO LONGER NEEDED FOR HIGHWAY PURPOSES

S. D. No. 4 Project South Bascom Avenue
Parcel No. 2411-68 EX

WHEREAS, the County of Santa Clara has acquired for highway purposes certain real property no longer required for such purposes, such property being more fully described in Exhibit "A", attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that pursuant to the authority of Section 960.4 of the California Streets and Highways Code, the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara do hereby declare their intention to offer for sale the above-described real property.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that such real property shall be sold subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The minimum amount which will be accepted for the sale of such property shall be the sum of FIFTY THOUSAND AND NO/100 DOLLARS ($50,000.00).

2. The County of Santa Clara has purchased a preliminary title report from Valley Title Company, 300 South 1st, San Jose, escrow number 152178. A copy of such preliminary title report is available for inspection at the title company. The successful bidder shall close the transaction through this escrow.

3. All sealed bids shall be accompanied by a deposit in the form of cash, cashier's check or certified check, payable to the order of the County of Santa Clara in the amount of Five Thousand and no/100--Dollars ($5,000.00). All oral bids from persons not submitting written bids shall be accompanied by a deposit in the form of cash, cashier's check or certified check in the amount of ten per cent of the minimum price specified in this resolution. No bid shall be considered unless such deposit is enclosed or provided therewith.

4. Written bids shall be on forms provided by the County. Before accepting any written bid, the Board of Supervisors shall call for oral bids. Any oral bid must exceed by at least five per cent the highest written bid. In the absence of written bids, the minimum oral bid shall be not less than the amount specified in paragraph 1. Final acceptance of an oral bid shall not be made, however, unless such oral bid is reduced to writing and signed by the bidder on a form provided by the County.

No commission shall be paid unless there is contained in the sealed proposal the name of the licensed real estate broker to whom it shall be paid. No commission shall be paid in connection with a successful oral bid unless the oral bid, when reduced in writing, states the name of the licensed real estate broker to whom it shall be paid.

5. The County may accept the bid of the highest responsible bidder (written or oral), or may reject all bids, as well as waiving any and all defects or informalities in any and all such bids. In the event there is a tie as to the highest responsible bidder (written or oral), the successful bidder may be determined by lot, or by such other means as determined by the Board of Supervisors. Any sale may be cancelled by County at any time prior to the recordation of the deed, in which event all monies deposited shall be refunded without payment of interest. In determining the highest proposal, the Board shall not subtract therefrom any commission to be paid in accordance with paragraph 12 hereof.

6. Within sixty (60) days after date of acceptance of bid by the Board of Supervisors, the successful bidder shall:
   (a) Pay the balance in full, or
   (b) Increase his deposit to not less than twenty-five per cent (25%) of the amount of the bid by deposit with the title company referred to in paragraph 2.

The balance of the purchase price (in a maximum sum of seventy-five per cent of the amount of the bid) shall be evidenced by a promissory note by the successful bidder naming the County of Santa Clara as payee, such evidence of indebtedness to be secured by a first deed of trust covering the entire parcel being sold. Such note shall be payable on or before eighteen (18) months after date of recordation of deed. The deed of trust shall contain a clause providing for acceleration upon the alienation of title.

Upon delivery into escrow by bidder of all documents and money provided for in (a) or (b) above, County shall deliver into escrow a deed in favor of the successful bidder.

7. The promissory note shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum.

Said interest shall be paid to County quarterly on the first day of January, April, July and October, commencing with whichever of the last-mentioned months that follows the recordation date of the deed. Each quarterly interest payment shall be computed and prorated on the basis of the unpaid balance prevailing at the beginning of the quarterly period.

A late charge in the amount of 2% of the quarterly interest payment will be assessed if interest payment is not made within 10 calendar days after due date.

The principal obligation under the Note and Deed of Trust may be prepaid in full or in part at any time without penalty. Partial payments shall be applied against the principal obligations.

West Valley College employees granted cost of living increase

West Valley College employees were granted a five per cent cost of living increase at a governing board meeting Thursday night.

This is slightly less than the 7.2 per cent increase requested by both certificated and classified personnel.

In addition the governing board approved the superintendent's additional recommendations of granting a 50 cent an hour increase in extended day salaries and that additional funds be budgeted to provide Social Security coverage for extended day and summer session faculty members.

Approval of the president's recommendation came after nearly one and one-half hours of discussion.

Total cost of the increase is approximately $221,000 which will come from the reserve funds of the district.

In granting the superintendent's recommendation, a majority of the board members indicated that this was a generous request in view of the financially tight times the district as well as the country finds itself.

Board member Donald Lindstrom said he felt a very strong obligation to the people who elected him and he found it difficult to support the request. He voted for the proposal, however, stating "I will support this measure but only because the people who work for this district do work for it. The caliber of student that comes out of this institution is a credit to all who work here."

Lindstrom was joined by fellow trustee Edward Panelli, who stated he was "very, very happy with the staff we have," but also expressed disappointment that the faculty members did not support the superintendent's recommendation for a five per cent increase.

Robert Sorensen, newly elected chairman of the board, also expressed his concern over the salary increase. "I think we have a very good salary and fringe benefit program," he stated, and added that "we are unfortunately in a time of unemployment and a period of recession."

Thursday night the board also approved the publication budget for the district, totaling $23.7 million. The budget will now be published in a local newspaper and final action on the budget will be taken August 5 following a public hearing.

The tax rate to support the budget will remain at its current level of 93.9 cents per $100 assessed valuation or drop slightly, according to a business spokesman at the college. The district will build fewer buildings on its Saratoga campus this coming year than in the past.

The humanities-fine arts complex and the business education-student personnel-administration building will both begin construction this year.

James P. Hardy, superintendent, also informed the board that $1.4 million for acquisition of the Mission College site in Santa Clara was in the state budget signed into law by the governor and that funds should become available after the project goes through the state Public Works Board in August.

In other action Thursday night the board:

1. Hired four teachers for the coming year. They include: Dan R. Braden, tennis coach, 37, who holds a bachelor and master's degree in physical education from the University of Toledo, Ohio; Dr. Thomas K. Hall, chemistry, 34, with a bachelor's from the University of Santa Clara and his doctorate from Iowa State University; Mrs. Linda King, anthropology, 26, with a bachelor's from UCLA and a master's from UC, Davis; Robert E. Quirk, physical education, (fall semester only) with a bachelor's from the State University of New York and a soon to be completed master's from San Jose State.

2. Approved the following personnel matters: appointed Mrs. Frances Strobridge account clerk in the business office; and granted Mrs. Betty Bradler a two-month maternity leave.

3. Held over until its August 5 meeting a proposal from the Los Amigos Club for implementation of a recruitment program of Mexican-American students.

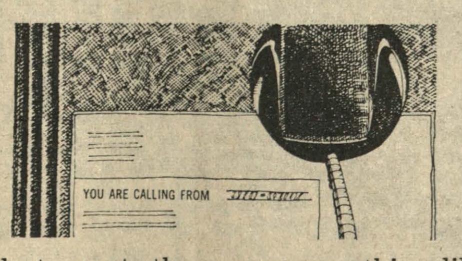
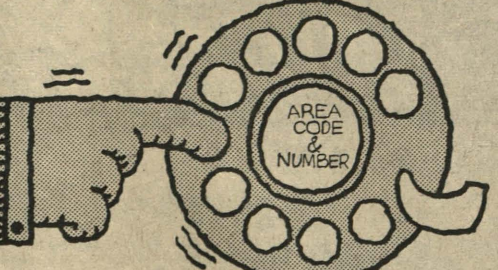
THE PHONE BOOTH

A phone left off the hook—either by accident or on purpose—can prevent urgent calls from reaching you. Getting a busy signal when you're trying to call someone can be annoying at the best of times, but the situation could be serious when someone's trying to reach you in an emergency. Checking your phone now and then to make sure it's hung up properly is good insurance against losing incoming calls.



At last count, there were something like 124,000 pay phones in California. And now each one of them has an address card that tells you where it's located. Knowing the street address of a pay phone could come in handy—like when you're reporting an emergency and need to give the exact address quickly. Or when someone is coming to get you and they ask where you're calling from. These location cards are just one way we've tried to make our pay phones more useful to you.



I'd just like to remind you that dialing direct is the fast way to make a long distance phone call. And all you have to do to dial direct is dial the Area Code (if it's different from your own) plus the phone number of the person you're calling. To find Area Codes for the entire United States, just check the front pages of your phone book.

YWCA has sale at Camden High

"Bargain Day---An Everything Sale" planned by the San Jose YWCA for Saturday at Camden High School, Camden and Union Avenues, Campbell, is being planned as a family affair---complete with gypsy fortune teller and fish pond for the children. All sorts of bargains will be offerd for sale from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Inspiration for the Bargain Day event came when it was discovered that, unless new funds were forthcoming, YW program would have to be curtailed in Central Santa Clara Valley. The San Jose YW now serves women and girls in the area from Sunnyvale to South San Jose, from Milpitas to Los Altos; men participate in some activities as associates. It is a United Fund Agency.

The Cambrian Center at 4343 Leigh Avenue serves most of the residents of Campbell who participate in YW program. This summer more than 500 boys and girls are participating in the youth program there, and more than 300 adults are attending classes, both daytime and evening.

Information about the San Jose YWCA of "Bargain Day" may be obtained by calling 292-1075 or 269-7534.

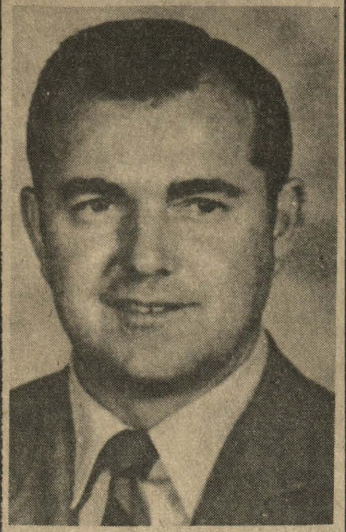
Dan Braden is WV tennis coach



DAN BRADEN

The West Valley College tennis team gets a new boost this fall with the appointment of former tennis pro Dan Braden as coach.

Braden, who served as tennis pro at the Carranor Hunt and Polo Club in Toledo, Ohio, has had a life-long interest in the sport. A former high school state champion, Braden went on to captain the tennis team at the University of Toledo playing number one singles for four years. He was graduated from the university with a master's degree in education in 1961.

Following his professional career Braden coached tennis at North High School in Torrance for six years, bringing the team to a leadership position in the southern California area.

Tennis is no stranger to the rest of Braden's family. His brother served as pro at the Jack Kramer Club in Rolling Hills Estates and is now opening a "tennis college" at the Ranch Bernardo Inn near San Diego. Another brother is teaching pro in Encino.

Braden and his wife Charlotte have two pre-school age children, Mark and Lynn.

West Valley Colts win district, advance to sectional tourney

By winning the district tournament last week, West Valley Colt All-Stars won the right to enter the sectional tournament in Santa Cruz this Thursday, July 29. They play at 6 p.m. in the Harvey West Stadium.

West Valley Colt All-Stars, hosts of the district tournament at Saratoga High School last week, swept the field by winning three straight games to become district champs. The other all-star teams were from San Jose, Cupertino, and Santa Clara.

West Valley won over Cupertino on Monday, July 19 by the score of 10–5. Jay Gingrich (Branham) was the winning pitcher with a big helping hand from Rick Bauer (Los Gatos) who ripped a three run homer in the third, and Bill Moore (Prospect) who drove in three runs on two well-placed singles.

Tuesday saw San Jose win from Santa Clara 6–3. Wednesday Santa Clara handed Cupertino its second loss (11–0) to eliminate them.

Thursday, July 22, West Valley inched by San Jose 7–6. Rick Bauer was the winning pitcher and Gordon Hahn and Jeff Mason (both from Campbell) each had three hits for four times at bat.

Friday night Santa Clara eliminated San Jose 6–5.

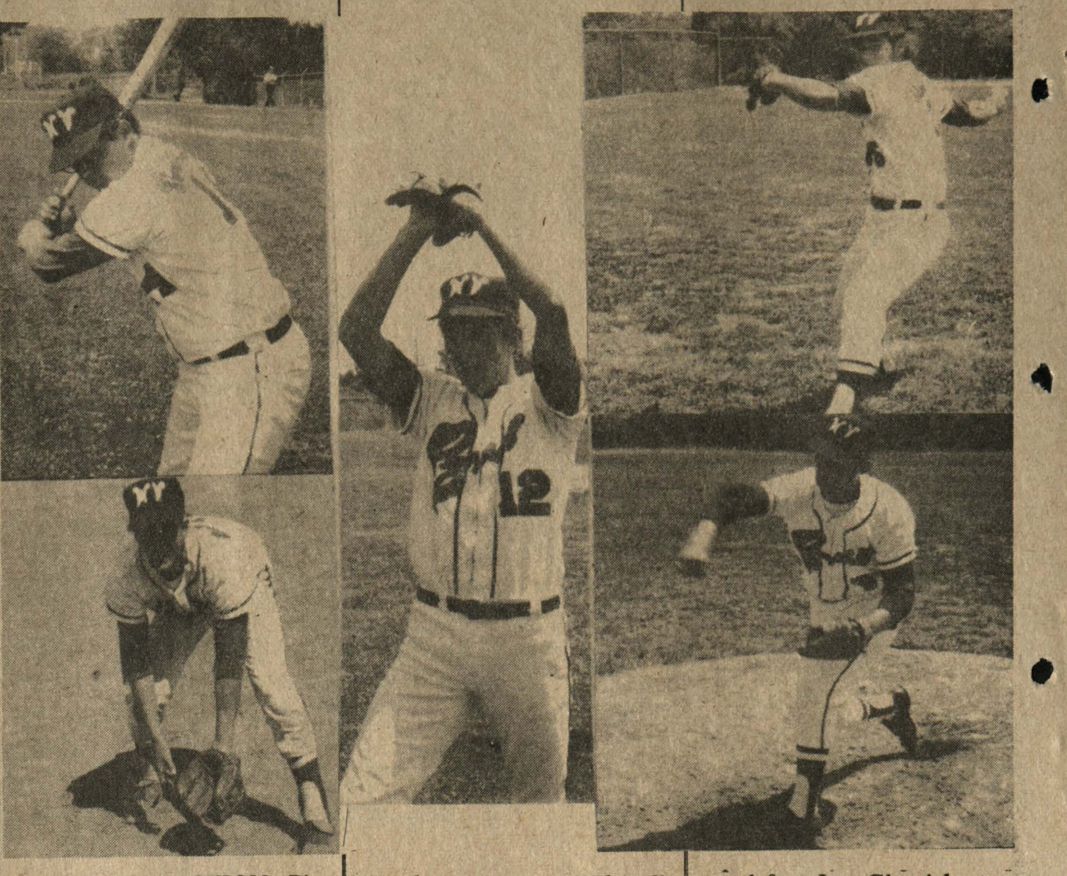
Saturday, July 24, West Valley smashed the ball for 11 hits to eliminate Santa Clara 12–3. Gary Haney (Westmont) was the winning pitcher---again with lots of help from Bill Moore, who blasted a triple and a double, and doubles from Jeff Mason and Gordon Hahn, as well as a double from Haney, himself.

The most valuable player award went to Gordon Hahn. Playing shortstop for Campbell and the All-Stars, Gordy sparkled at the plate by getting seven hits in nine times at bat during the tournament. He was on base 12 straight times, striking out his first time at bat, then getting first base with his seven hits, four walks and one error.

Wayne Mitchell, manager of the All-Stars (Campbell) has three returnees from last year's team that lost in the final division game at Fullerton.

They are: Rick Bauer (pitcher), Dave DeLong (catcher–Camden), and Jay Peryam (first base–Del Mar).

Mitchell's coach is Jim Dilles (Los Gatos) whose son, John, is also on the team. The team business manager is Larry Mullins, West Valley Colt League President.



COLTS IN ACTION---Pictured are some of the players on the West Valley Colt League all-stars, winners of the district tournament at Saratoga High last week and who have now advanced to the sectional tournament. The all-stars play their first game in Santa Cruz at the Harvey West Stadium this Sunday, July 29, at 6 p.m.

Campbell-Moreland Pony League all-stars advance to sectional

Campbell-Moreland Pony League all-stars this week are battling for the sectional championship in Santa Clara after winning the district championship in the tournament held at Rincon Park field in Campbell last week. (The all-stars had their sectional first game on Tuesday after press time.)

The local all-stars came from behind in the final game at Rincon to win 6–4 from San Francisco.

Fred Long, Campbell's relief pitcher, hurled one-hit ball for six innings while his teammates overcame a 4–0 deficit to win the bunting.

Gary Lujan swung a big bat in the game, collecting a three-run triple and a two-run single.

To reach the finals, Campbell-Moreland chalked up three wins. In the opening game, C-M used a 22-hit attack to defeat Saratoga 15–5.

The next day, Joe Caseres pitched a two-hitter and picked up a two-run homer to lead Campbell-Moreland to a 6–1 win over San Francisco.

Scotts Valley then bowed to the locals 12–2. In this fray, Ken Ucci had a two-run homer in the first inning to get things started properly.

The Section II double-elimination tournament is taking place at Lou Verra Field in Santa Clara. The winner of Tuesday's game plays on Thursday with the loser playing Wednesday. The final game will be held on Saturday.

Yearlings hold track sign-ups

San Jose Yearlings track team is taking sign-ups for cross-country events for boys and girls, ages 7 to 14, on Thursday and Friday, July 29 and 30 and Monday and Tuesday, August 2 and 3 from 6 to 6:30 at San Jose City College.

The team is interested in attracting youngsters nine and under. According to Gary Gallego, coach during the past three years the boys team took a third in age 9 and under in a state meet, a second in the 10 and 11 division, and firsts in 12 and 13 and a first in 14 and 15 divisions.

The boys team also holds 16 national track and field records.

Little Leaguers beat Briarwood

Campbell Little League all-stars, runners-up for the world championship last year, got a successful start on the long, long tournament trail that leads to Williamsport last Thursday by defeating Santa Clara Briarwood 6–0.

The game was played on Moreland Little League at Payne School.

By one of those coincidences in scheduling, the game last Thursday pitted two former world champion runners-up against each other. In 1970, Santa Clara Briarwood went all the way to the finals in Williamsport.

Shawn Skillman starred on the mound for Campbell, hurling a one-hit shut-out and striking out 13 batters.

Todd Osburg led the hitting attack, collecting a two-run triple in the first inning
